ACADEMIC PROGRAM

For students interested in building strength, endurance, consistency, refinement, and artistry through proper repetition. For students possibly pursuing dance in college, as a professional career, or as a strong singular hobby. Students take 3 or more classes per week with the option to perform numerous times yearly. Performance opportunities include the annual spring concert and the Harford Ballet Company. This program may only be attended by students registered solely at DCM to ensure consistency of training. This program offers a substantial discount to students taking multiple classes per week.

Academic Requirements can be fulfilled using different combinations of classes (i.e. Jazz, Tap and Modern) with director's approval. Unlimited classes can be taken at different levels; consult director for options. Discounted costs for technique classes only. Performance class fees remain the same.

See reverse side of page for full schedule of academic classes Ballet III, Ballet IV, Ballet IVx, Ballet V, Pointe I, Pointe II (minimum of 4-6 Ballet and Pointe classes per week required)
